

ESSAY: Home Learning Week One – March 16-20

While we're away from school this week, we will continue work on Essay 2 – your personal narrative. If you have questions, I will do my best to be available. I encourage you to pace your work in a way that allows you to do your best thinking, but I have also provided a suggested schedule for completing your assessment in manageable chunks. Do your work, wash your hands, and be well. 😊

COMMUNICATION:

I will be giving you feedback on a rolling basis.

If you have a question, I will be checking email each day. – mmcgillicuddy@theparkerschool.org

OUTPUTS:

- ✓ VISUAL / STORY SHAPE OUTLINE
- ✓ CHARACTER DEVELOPMENT QUESTIONS
- ✓ SHOW V. TELL QUESTIONS

SUBMITTING WORK:

You will find a folder in OneNote called "Home Learning Week of March 16." All work should be submitted in the OneNote.

In it, you will find the pages to submit the following:

- Visual outline
- Character Development Questions
- Show v. tell questions

I will be providing feedback in a rolling manner as you complete your tasks. Please check your work for comments.

SUGGESTED TIMELINE:

March 16-17 – Watch Kurt Vonnegut "Story Shape" video. Work on Visual Outline.

March 18-19 – Character Development Questions

March 19-20 – Show v. Tell questions

All work due Monday, March 23 at 8am.

RESOURCES:

- ✓ Kurt Vonnegut "Story Shape" video
- ✓ Example of visual outline