

American Dream

Home Learning: Week of April 27th

ALL WORK DUE MONDAY MAY 4th AT 8:00 AM

Intro:

Welcome back from spring break! Get ready to finish A Raisin in the Sun and prepare to write a literary analysis exploring characters or themes. This play has so much to offer in terms of images, symbols, patterns, and dynamic characters. I hope you have already spotted something you would like to investigate further in your upcoming assessment which will be assigned next week.

Communication with me:

If you would like to ask me specific questions or get feedback on your work, you can:

1. Email me specific questions!
2. Text me at 843-327-5969 to set-up a call!
3. Schedule a Teams meeting with me!

Steps:

Go to the Class Notebook.

→ Go to the folder “Learning from Home (Week of April 27)”

→ Find and complete the tasks listed (each has a its own page)

Tasks preview:

- Task 1 (READ: Act 3, finish the play)
→ Read aloud on Monday from 12:00-1:00
- Task 2 (RESPOND: Act 3 conversations)
- Task 3 (ANALYZE: a poem to finish the play)
- Task 4 (JOIN: Teams discussion on Thursday 4/30 @ 12:00)

highly encourage but not required*

Suggested work schedule:

Monday: Task 1 (Read Act 3 and/or join our Monday read aloud! If you just want to listen in, you are still welcome! Act 3 is quite short.)

Tuesday: Task 2 (After reading and thinking deeply about Act 3, choose the conversation that will be your focus for this analytical task. Respond thoroughly using the text as evidence.)

Thursday: Task 3 + Task 4 (Read the poem and respond to the analysis questions. Then, join our class discussion at 12:00.)
