Home Learning: Week of April 27th

ALL WORK DUE MONDAY MAY 4th AT 8:00 AM

Intro:

Welcome back from spring break! This week, we have two main objectives:

- 1) Turning in your OPs if you haven't done so
- 2) Starting a new unit on found object sculptures!

Communication with me:

If you would like to ask me specific questions or get feedback on your work, you can:

1. Email me specific questions!
2. Text me at 843-327-5969 to set-up a call!
3. Schedule a Teams meeting with me!

Steps:

Go to the Class Notebook.

→ Go to the folder "Learning from Home (Week of April 27)"

→ Find and complete the tasks listed (each has a its own page)

Tasks preview:

- Task 1 (CHECK-IN: OP status?)
- Task 2 (READ + RESPOND: Is it art?)
- Task 3 (LOOK + RESPOND: Marcel Duchamp)
- Task 4 (READ + RESPOND: Back to Brancusi)
- Task 5 (JOIN: Intro to Found Objects)
- Optional extension task!

Suggested work schedule:

- Monday: Task 1 + 2 (Schedule a 10 min check-in with me if you haven't yet tuned in your OP and complete the short reading and response work for task 2)
- Tuesday: Task 3 (This task includes a pretty interesting video that will answer some question you might have about that darn urinal sculpture!)
- Thursday: Task 4 + 5 (Read the short article about Brancusi's connection to Duchamp and join the class discussion at 1:30)
- Friday: PLP Day, optional extension task if it intrigues you!
