MEMOIR: Home Learning Week Ten – May 26- 29

Memoirists, this is it – we're in the final stretch. What better way to spend our time than telling each other stories!

This week, your goal is to complete your AE and artist statement and submit them by Monday, June 1 at 8am so I have time to listen, provide feedback, and then you have time to revise.

Seniors, in order to be done by your last day of class, May 29th, you will want to shorten this calendar. For those who need this piece for portfolio – please let me know as your due date WILL BE EARLIER THAN the 29th.

To complete the course successfully, AEs are due no later than June 5.

If you have questions, I will do my best to be available. I encourage you to pace your work in a way that allows you to do your best work. You can do it! 😊

COMMUNICATION:

I will try to be open for video conferences by request. This may be interrupted by a screaming infant, but I'll do my best to accommodate time for questions, check-ins, and human interaction!

If you have a question, I will be checking email each day. – mmcgillicuddy@theparkerschool.org

TASKS:

This week your only work is to finalize, practice, and complete your assessment!

HUMAN CONTACT/VIRTUAL "CLASS":

Instead of class this week, I want to provide more opportunities to check-in one on one, so if you need support, please email me to set up a time.

OUTPUTS:

- ✓ AE – My Story (Flipgrid)
